Benefit exclusions
AIDWORKER24-DR (AW24-DR)
No duty to provide benefit exists for:
a)	deliberately self-inflicted illnesses and accidents including their consequences as well as for detoxification and withdrawal treatments;
b)	treatment by doctors, dentists and in hospitals whose invoices the insurer has excluded from reimbursement for significant reasons if the insured event occurs after the policyholder has been notified of the benefit exclusion. If an insured event is pending at the time of the notification, there shall be no duty to provide benefit for any expenses incurred after the expiry of three months following such notification;
c)	spa and sanatorium treatment and rehabilitation treatment provided by statutory rehabilitation providers if the tariff does not provide otherwise;
d)	treatments at a spa or health resort. the restriction does not apply if treatment becomes necessary during a temporary stay due to an illness which is not related to the purpose of the stay or due to an accident which occurred there. The duty to provide benefit exists as long as departure is impossible according to medical opinion. The restriction also does not apply if the treatment takes place at the spa or health resort or in its immediate proximity due to the policyholder's place of residence. Medication prescribed by the treating doctor at the insured person's place of residence or by the insured person's General Practitioner for outpatient use at a spa or health resort shall also be reimbursed;
e)	treatment by the policyholder's or insured person's spouse or life partner, parents or children; proven material costs shall be reimbursed according to the tariff;
f)	accommodation necessitated by the need for long term or short term care;
g)	the correction of disfigurements or physical abnormalities, vaccinations, disinfections, medical reports, certificates or nursing staff other than for inpatient hospital treatment as long as such is not expressly provided for in the tariff;
h)	termination of pregnancy, unless this is unforeseen and necessary for medical reasons;
i)	treatments for sterility or infertility (e.g. in vitro fertilisation);
j)	treatments which the insured person knew at the start of the journey would have to take place during the ordinary course of the journey unless the journey was undertaken as a result of the death of the insured person's spouse or life partner or first degree relative;
k)	inlays, dental prostheses, crowns or orthodontics as long as the tariff does not expressly provide benefits for such;
l)	a normal pregnancy, particularly for antenatal care, and a normal delivery. In the event of an acutely abnormal pregnancy, the insurer shall however provide benefit to the extent set out in the contract for inpatient and outpatient medical treatment. The same applies for abnormal deliveries.
